Why do Glofish fluoresce?
Why do Glofish fluoresce?

① Jellyfish and Sea anemones naturally fluoresce.

② Scientist extracted the DNA from jellyfish and sea anemones that caused them to fluoresce.

③ The DNA from the jellyfish and sea anemone was then injected into a zebrafish embryo.

④ The zebrafish grow into adults and fluoresce. Each of the adults then pass down their fluorescing ability to their young.

http://www.Glofish.com